

contrast-or-topic

The diagram illustrates the relationship between two semantic roles in the sentence "Kim is the STUDENT." A box labeled "contrast-or-topic" is positioned above the word "Kim", with a downward arrow pointing to it. A box labeled "semantic-focus" is positioned below the word "STUDENT", with an upward arrow pointing to it. This indicates that "Kim" is the contrast or topic and "STUDENT" is the semantic focus.

Kim is the STUDENT.

semantic-focus